Phone and Text Line Helps Teens Who Need to Talk

Chester County's Teen Talk Line is a valuable resource for non-emergency calls or texts from youth between 12 and 18 who feel overwhelmed, stressed, sad, isolated, or confused. Funded by Chester County's Office of Mental Health, Teen Talk Line provides a safe space for teens to connect with others in a supportive, confidential way, share their concerns, and receive peer and professional support. Calls or texts can be made every day from 3:00 to 7:00 p.m.

Sewer/Refuse Bills: Reminder: Bills are due 8/1. Pay online or drop payments off at Borough Hall drop box.
